Show Info:	School spirit on the Rocks!
	Will Don Draper crack the big idea while drinking his body weight in liquor? Will Glee club put together an album that today's teen will actually pay to download? Will Quinn's pregnancy go more smoothly if she picks up a pack a day habit from Betty Draper? Or will Sue Sylvester finally get her way and turn her pre-construction condo investment into a cheerleading super store? Find out all this and more, spring 2010 with MADglee!
	All proceeds of the show go to the Stephen Lewis Foundation, with almost $60,000 donated to date from our previous seven sold out productions!

5 male performers and 5 female performers required

Strong comedic and improv skills. Good sense of physical comedy. Range of types (mainstream to quirky), sizes, shapes and colours. Must be strong vocalists who work well with others and want to have a great time.

Queen's Players Toronto is not only a show – it's an event! We're looking for performers who can take to the stage for a comedic sketch and pop song extravaganza and who aren't afraid of having a great time while helping an amazing charity!
